

NES Financial Announces New Branding After Acquisition by JTC Group

San Jose, CA, April 26, 2021 – NES Financial | JTC, a leader in specialty financial administration, announced the completion of its global integration efforts today with the announcement of its new brand, JTC Americas.

“The evolution to the JTC Americas banner reinforces the strength, global footprint, and broad capabilities of the company,” said Michael Halloran, Group Holdings board member, head of Technology & Strategy, and CEO of JTC Americas. “Our clients have been quick to begin adopting the expanded solutions available through our global reach.”

JTC Americas continues to build upon its leadership in specialty fund administration and impact reporting for private equity funds and now offers a broader suite of capabilities to clients including institutional, corporate, and private client services.

“Despite the effects of a global pandemic, the evolution of NES Financial into JTC Americas as our platform for growth in the US fund services market has moved forward at a tremendous pace,” said Nigel Le Quesne, CEO of JTC. “The US market represents a significant growth opportunity for JTC and we are encouraged by the interest we are seeing from clients in their global expansion efforts.”
